Our Accomplishments

From Stained-Glass Window to Internet Wi-Fi

- ❖ Created -
 - Annual September Book Fair, a community event
 - Friends Bookstore at the Library
- ❖ Funded high tech projects -
 - Flat-screen monitors for public computer use
 - Installation of Wi-Fi for laptop access to the Internet
- ❖ Purchase books, CDs, DVDs, and other items not in the Library budget
- ❖ Support adult literacy programs - Project Read and special interest programs, such as book discussion groups
- ❖ Sponsor children's programs –
 - Annual "Kepler's Day," a celebration of reading
 - Summer Reading Program events and free book prizes for participants
- ❖ Commissioned art works -
 - Stained glass window above the Library entry
 - Windy Hill mural in the Library lobby

Year-around sales of more than 100,000 donated books, processed by volunteers, provide necessary funding for Library programs and resources.

How we do it....

- Sponsor the annual Book Fair and Auction
- Sort and price donated books, CDs, and DVDs; stock the Friends Bookstore daily
- Hold quarterly Book Sales
- Run the Online Book Store

The Friends of the Library has provided support for the Menlo Park Library since 1952.
